A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath. (Tune: 381: Brethren We Have Met for Worship)

How good it is to thank and to sing our praises
Unto Jehovah, God Most High.
And to declare His love that is steadfast in the
Morning and faithful in the night.
To the music of lute and of lyre
With the strings of the harp we employ
Melodies filled with gladness at all your workings
Praise for your hands which bring us joy!

How great your works, O Lord!
And how deep your thoughts are
Those who are foolish cannot know.
And though the wicked sprout and the evil flourish
Theirs is a final doom below.
Jesus King in the heights reigns forever.
For behold all your enemies, LORD
Down in the depths find they surely have been scattered
Doers of evil are destroyed.

But you exalt my strength like the wild oxen
Over my head fresh blessings pour.
My eyes have seen the downfall of all my enemies
And my ears have heard their fall.
But the righteous flourish like palm trees
Like the cedars in Lebanon all.
For they are planted in church by the living savior
And they will flourish in His courts.

Look at those saints who dwell here for many ages
Still bearing fruit the Spirit gives
For they are full of life that is green and growing
Theirs is a life that ever lives.
They declare "Jehovah is upright!"
"He's my rock!" Is what they proclaim.
All their long years have taught them the central truth that
Unrighteousness is not in him.

How good it is to thank and to sing our praises
Unto Jehovah, God Most High.
And to declare His love that is steadfast in the
Morning and faithful in the night.
To the music of lute and of lyre
With the strings of the harp we employ
Melodies filled with gladness at all your workings
Praise for your hands which bring us joy

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Today we will again have the privilege to celebrate the holy sacrament of The Lord's Supper, a means by which we experience the grace won for us by Christ's sacrifice for our sins, as He commanded, "Do this in remembrance of me." An offering will be received for the Deacons' Benevolent Fund during the singing of the final hymn.

Following the morning service, we will enjoy our monthly Family Fellowship Meal in the school cafeteria. Your help with cleanup would be appreciated.

We welcome you back for our Evening Worship Service beginning at 6 p.m. Pastor Moes has begun a new series examining each of the 66 books of the Bible and its central message — this week looking at the Book of Leviticus.

In the Adult Sunday School class, Elder Rev. Mark Rushdoony continues his series of lessons from the Gospels on the events leading up to Christ's death and resurrection.

The Women of CPC winter retreat will be held this coming weekend at Eagles Rest Christian Retreat House in Twain Harte. The cost is $45. Scholarships are available. Contact Brittany Duggan (brittmoes@yahoo.com or (209) 603-5993) to make your reservation or request financial help.

On February 18, 25, and March 3, we will be meeting in the Multipurpose Room (cafeteria). Extra help will be needed for set-up and take-down.

The Session encourages our members to consider hosting small-group Bible studies in your homes. We are especially hoping to see one in the Valley Springs area at this time. If you live elsewhere and are looking for a such a group, contact Pastor Moes to see if one currently is meeting in your area.

SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES:

- SNACKS NEXT SUNDAY: Lorelei Moes
FEBRUARY 18: Carol Benning
- NURSERY THIS SUNDAY: Anna Gates & Aaron Jack
NEXT SUNDAY: Cheri Costa & Benjamin Duggan
