HYMN OF THE MONTH:

O GOD OF EARTH AND ALTAR (PRAYER FOR THE NATION)

O God of earth and altar, bow down and hear our cry,
Our earthly rulers falter, our people drift and die;
The walls of gold entomb us, the swords of scorn divide,
Take not thy thunder from us, but take away our pride.

From all that terror teaches, from lies of tongue and pen,
From all the easy speeches that comfort cruel men,
From sale and profanation of honour and the sword,
From sleep and from damnation, deliver us, good Lord!

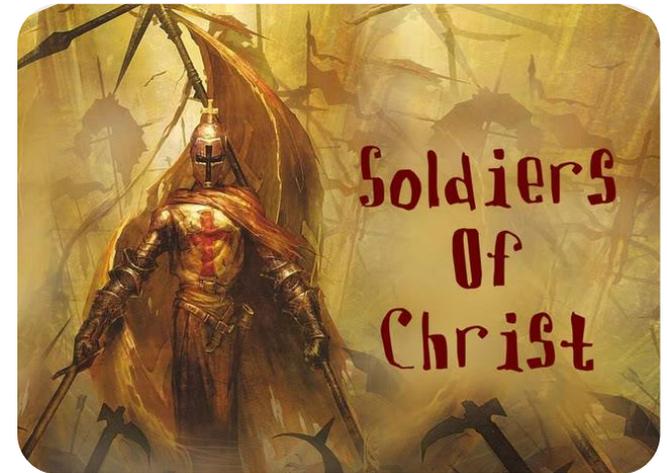

Tie in a living tether the prince and priest and thrall*,
Bind all our lives together, smite us and save us all;
In ire and exultation aflame with faith, and free,
Lift up a living nation, a single sword to thee.

*Slave or serf, one in bondage or under the power or influence of another

PSALM 115

No, not to us, O Lord, but to Your Name give glory
Because of Your great love, for faithful is Your story.
Why should the nations say, “Their God cannot be found!”
Our God is in the heavens, His will: it all abounds.

By works of human hands, their idols they have crafted.
These idols cannot speak, nor smell, nor hear, nor watch them.
They’ve hands that do not feel, and feet that cannot walk.
Their throats they make no sound, they cannot with men talk.

All those who fashion them, become like them in nature.
And those who trust their power, place all they are in danger.
Not so, O Israel, you shall trust in the Lord:
The house of Aaron’s Help! Our Shield forevermore!

All you who fear the Lord, and trust in His protection,
He will remember us, both small and great He blesses.
May He give you increase, your child may He endow.
“Creator of the world, may You bless those below.”

The heavens are the Lord’s, but earth He’s given to men.
But dead men cannot praise, in silence they will descend.
But we will praise the Lord! Both now and evermore.
He lives and so shall we! We live to bless the Lord!
