WESTMINSTER SHORTER CATECHISM MEMORY WORK

Q. 91 How do the sacraments become effectual means of salvation?

A. The sacraments become effectual means of salvation, not from any virtue in them, or in him that doth administer them; but only by the blessing of Christ, and the working of his Spirit in them that by faith receive them.

HYMN OF THE MONTH: MY HEART OF FILLED WITH THANKFULNESS

My heart is filled with thankfulness, to Him who bore my pain;
Who plumb'd the depths of my disgrace and gave me life again;
Who crush'd my curse of sinfulness and clothed me in His light
And wrote His law of righteousness with pow'r upon my heart.

My heart is filled with thankfulness, to Him who walks beside;
Who floods my weaknesses with strength and causes fears to fly;
Whose ev'ry promise is enough for ev'ry step I take,
Sustaining me with arms of love and crowning me with grace.

My heart is filled with thankfulness, to him who reigns above,
Whose wisdom is my perfect peace, Whose ev'ry thought is love.
For ev'ry day I have on earth is given by the King;
So I will give my life, my all, to love and follow him.

NEWS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Today we will again celebrate The Lord’s Supper during the morning worship service. The sacrament commemorates Jesus’ sacrificial death and our sacred union with Him when we put our trust in His atonement for our sins. To partake in the supper is to deepen one’s relationship with God and fellow believers — the Communion of the Saints. It signifies, primarily, our union with a Holy God and thus requires that we come as repentant believers, testifying to our status as redeemed people of God. The Lord’s Supper showcases the spiritual nourishment of believers. In Communion, you consecrate yourself to God while accepting Christ as your Lord and Savior. If you have not trusted Christ for your salvation, we urge you to refrain from the supper.

An offering for the deacons’ benevolent fund will be received at the close of the sacrament.

Our monthly Family Fellowship Luncheon will be held following the morning service. All are welcome!

All are invited to a special prayer time at the chapel at 7:30 on Wednesday evening to seek God’s guidance on many prayer concerns. See Karlinda Moes for more information.

Join us for the Adult Sunday School class as Elder Mark Rushdoony explores the Harmony of the Gospels. Use this opportunity to further understand the Gospel story.

Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes should be turned in this week. See Darlene Rushdoony for full information.

CHAPEL CLEANING THIS WEEK: More volunteers needed for November. SNACKS NEXT SUNDAY: Mandy Mantei. November 21: Wendy Cookson.

Each year in November, believers around the world participate in special services that focus on praying for the persecuted church. This year’s International Day of Prayer presents us with yet another opportunity to intercede on behalf of the estimated 260 million believers around the world who are experiencing high to extreme forms of persecution due to their faith.

A noteworthy understanding derived from each year’s IDOP services is that the persecuted Christians being represented typically don’t request prayer for their persecution to end or be avoided. Rather those being persecuted for the name of Christ make a point of rejoicing in times of suffering, and their prayer requests mainly focus on their country’s current affairs and the resulting implications on fellow local believers. Even so, we should keep in mind whenever interceding for the prayer needs of the world’s persecuted Christians that some important elements ought to be impressed on the hearts of all who pledge allegiance to Christ: courage, consolation, contentment & compassion.
